Badass-in-the head:

I forgot/ ere is another suggestion on how you can walk Jimmy.

You know, with that great genius for public relations you have and how the xp printed or TV-spoken word will unlock all those steel doors?

And how great it will be for Jimmy if he is on NBC or CBS - now?

Fortunately there is one part of this on which Jim did not have to be told.

Spotten, good lawyer that he is, he also knows that right now anything Jimmy says can't help and can hurt.

What Jim did not have to be told about, knows more than he has to know about, is xx called "PSE." It stands for Psychological Stress Evaluation. One of Nixon's pals.

Several days ago Jim got a call from a black cats named Sherwood Ross. This guy wanted to tape an interview with Jimmy and subject it to this PSE.

If he told Jim, Jim did not tell me, but this has to mean a fink named George O'Toole. O'Toole says he is /formerly/ CIA. If he has done anything not good for CIA since I've not seen it.

The people who own this gadget are known as Dektor. They are the only people who came to Nixon's defense on those tape erasures. What they then xxx said was soon enough proven false - that the tapes were not erased. Only that one of the best tape recorders in the world was made wrong and had a bad part.

So Jim told this Ross guy "no." Ross says he'll ask Jimmy.

No the way for you to show what kind of real walking-public relations expert you are is to tell Jimmy not to worry about the CIA, just to agree to their making a tape and "testing" it and having all this "scientific" proof that Jimmy is a liar xx or a freak or a Manchurian candidate or whatever else interests those Penthouse pansies with whom both O'Toole and Ross are connected. Not just CIA, see.

They won't have to use CIA shrinks.

They can also claim they can use anything that has Jimmy's voice after the evidentiary hearing, whether from CBS or NBC or even a radio station.

The only thing they can't claim is that Jim gave his okay.

O'Toole won't have to get into the same room with Jimmy. (He never does with me, but for other reasons. I've clobbered him too much.) So his beard won't have to turn Jimmy's stomach. All he needs is a tape. Then he has all these squiggly lines he makes when he plays it. Then he says what these lines mean. I have had experience with this and his "science." He said a federal fink who was a great perjurer was an "honest man" from that particular tape.

Tell you what else will help Jimmy, what he'll really like. The guy on top does not only print color pictures of naked women, like Hustler, where Jimmy was uneasy. Or didn't he tell you? His wears leather shirts, with perfume. And if he smokes, it ain't a Swisher's honey-dipped crock. Last time he held a press conference in Washington, for this O'Toole, two different reporters taped and and gave me the tapes.

Here's your big chance, genius of public relations, also self-conceived as the Tennessee Walking Horse. Don't miss it. What you haven't done to Jimmy yet this lets you take care of. and don't worry about O'Toole and Dektor. They are white Christian Americans. And I'm not Christian.
